

I strongly oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy laws. I do not agree with the "established business relationship" as an excuse to call Indiana residents.